For those who like to dance, really good orchestra music and the best of floors on which to show your fancy steps, have been provided. For those who like to take it easy and be entertained there is going to be a first class floor show. There will be plenty of food for those who enjoy eating. Tickets are on sale now for this event. If one of your neighbors cannot supply you, call Frontier 5,354, 5,349 or 5-1930. Tickets also may be purchased at the cafeteria, where the dance and show will be held from 8:30 to 11:30 on October 6.

Saturday morning at 8:45 the small fry will gather at the circle on lower Doris way for a grand parade to the school grounds, where Earl Eckert, principal, will judge the entries and award one dollar in fair tickets to the winner. A 10-cent ticket will be given to each child participating in the parade.

Those who enter the parade will be riding or pushing a decorated vehicle, wearing a costume or showing a pet.

Seaside Ranchos

By BETTY LOU SPARKS

The kind of vacation most of us dream about but very few ever realize was made an actuality by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greenwood and their two daughters of Seaside Ranchos when they took a month's trip thru the eastern and southern United States and through Canada. History became real to Judy and Carolyn in their visit to Mt. Vernon, Paul Revere's house, Wayside Inn, and various other famous spots in the east. The prolonged vacation took the Greenwoods journeying through Boston, Washington, New York, Ontario, Detroit, Chicago, New Orleans, and Las Vegas. The wonderful French Quarter, Rocky Mountain National Park, and night spots of Las Vegas will all share in their memories for some time to come.

son, Lois Hicks, Alice Inman, Dorothy Slater, Millie Bishop, Mildred Forester, and Clair McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Muldune will tell you this week that it's not the third but the fourth time that's a charm. For this week Little Kathleen Alma came to join the family of three boys residing on upper Sharrynne Lane. Little Miss Muldune weighed in at 7 pounds 15 ounces.

Busy now showing guests the sights of Los Angeles are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rulison, Seattle, Wash., are visiting for two weeks.

Celebrating 15 years of married bliss Thursday night were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanover when they enjoyed a lobster dinner party at Welsh's, Long Beach. Guests from Seaside included Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Miller.

Seaside Ranchos Cub Dens met Friday night at El Retiro Park to induct new Cubes and to formulate plans for the year's activities.

Most of the boys spent the evening looking through a telescope at the moon and indulging in popcorn and cold drinks. Mr. Henry Miller, Cub Master for this area, requested anyone interested in becoming a Den mother or committee member to get in touch with him.

A tea for mothers of the children of her kindergarten class was given Wednesday at the Seaside Elementary School by Mrs. DeEtt LaFleur. Mothers had a fine time getting acquainted with each other as well as Mrs. LaFleur.

Members of the Brownie troop in Seaside Ranchos will resume activities this week with a meeting scheduled for Wednesday. Mrs. Grace Rickman, leader, requests anyone interested in becoming a Brownie committee-woman to contact her.

A new class in adult education, namely leather and copper tooling, has been formed at Seaside Elementary School. This class is free to all regardless of residence. In this class John Cavanaugh will stress the making of gift items, purses, bill folds, bookends, lamp coverings and many articles for the home.

Copper tooling will teach one how to make copper plaques, cigarette boxes, candy, and gift boxes and many items for gifts and home use.
